John Livingston and his brother Hugh were Scots Presbyterians who were exiled to Ireland after 1660. Since they were forced to live in the bogs near Londonderry, they adopted the surname Boggs.

He first married Harriet Walkup. Harriet, a daughter of Christopher Walkup, was born about 1802 and died about 1843. James married Lacy Ann O'Brien in Gilmer County VA (WV) in 1845.

Lacy, a daughter of John and Mary (Mace) O'Brien, was born in Kanawha County VA (WV) March 17, 1831. Lacy was shot in her home in the Booger Hole area of Clay County WV about 1916 by parties unknown. Hers and other murders resulted in vigilante action and the following notice being prominently posted in many places in the area.

"We, the citizens of Clay county, seeing that we cannot get justice by law, have organized the Clay County Mob. We have pledged our lives to drive these people from our county or kill them. If we cannot catch and hang you, we will sneak upon and kill you as you killed Henry Hargis, Lacy Anne Boggs, the old peddler and Preston Tanner." "If before you leave, there is any stealing, killing or burning, we will get the blood-hounds and detectives and run you to the ends of the earth. Nill Sampson, Kooch Sampson, Fred Moore and Aaron Runyon are hereby notified to leave the state in ten days. Rose Lyons, Bill More and Elizabeth Sampson are notified to leave in thirty days."

"P.S. Do not stop this side of the Ohio River."

This incident convinced the local authorities that the citizenry had reached the end of their patience and Howard Sampson was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Preston Tanner. No one was ever prosecuted for Lacey Anne's murder.
